

Brockton Public Schools School Committee Policy

EXAMINATIONS

Midyear and final examinations are administered to all students (Grades 9-12) at Brockton High School. These exams must be approved by the department head prior to the administering of the examination. Copies of each examination must be submitted to the department head and housemaster. No examination or test of any kind should be given on a religious holiday.